3. Retrieve the Application.

The screenshot shows the website interface for the U.S. Department of State Consular Electronic Application Center. The browser address bar displays "ceac.state.gov/GenNIV/Default.aspx". The page header includes the U.S. Department of State logo and a language selection dropdown set to "ENGLISH". The main heading is "Apply For a Nonimmigrant Visa" with an "FAQs" button. A tooltip indicates that most of the application has been translated. The "Get Started" section contains a dropdown menu for selecting a location (currently set to "- SELECT ONE -"), a text input field for a verification code, and a CAPTCHA image with the text "UDNEP". Below this are three buttons: "START AN APPLICATION", "UPLOAD AN APPLICATION", and "RETRIEVE AN APPLICATION". The "Important: Before You Start" section lists four links: "Learn about Types of Visas", "List of Documents and Information you will need", "Browser Requirements", and "How to complete the application". A note at the bottom states: "Please be patient as you use this form. Download times may vary depending on your internet connection speed."

Additional Information

Important: Before You Start

1. Learn about Types of Visas
2. List of Documents and Information you will need
3. Browser Requirements
4. How to complete the application

Other people can assist you with your visa application. Note that under U.S. law (22 C.F.R. 41.103) you must electronically sign and submit your own application unless you qualify for an exemption. Even if someone else helped you complete the application, you (the applicant) must click the "Sign Application" button, or your application may not be accepted.

Please be patient as you use this form. Download times may vary depending on your internet connection speed.

4) Enter the Application ID. Go on our website, log in and find it in your participation profile, in the DS 160 section: <https://caep.ro/work-and-travel/user/profile>

5) Tap Retrieve Application.
